Dear Mike,

I can't remember how long it has been since I read a book I simply couldn't put down! I forced myself to take a break at page 459 simply because I wanted to write about this magnificent page Turner. This might be your new career.

I was sucked into your story and simply couldn't put it down. I'm sure I'll read it again and can take a little more time just to enjoy it.

You are unbelievably creative - it's your gift. I read a lot but this book was wonderful - and you so often added one more sentence that was right on. So much research ~~must~~ have gone into all the details i.e. autopsy, chemistry, police stuff, checking maps, simply keeping such a convoluted story on track, and all your characters straight.

I can't wait to read all the books you will write.

Century House Publications was lucky to get you. Anything I can ever do to promote your talent I would be glad to do. I am just proud to know you. I hope you can say "I am really talented" It's OK - it's no more than telling the truth.

Proud to know you,
Lillian
